

PRESIDENT IN I. W. W. TERRITORY SAYS
LABOR PACT IN TREATY WILL END UNRESTCLAIMS TO BE GREATLY PLEASED OVER
SENTIMENT THRUOUT MINNESOTA IN FAVOR OF RATIFICATION

CAPITAL AND LABOR MUST AGREE

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10—Steel workers officials told President Wilson in a dispatch sent him today that they would wait but 48 hours more for him to arrange a conference between representatives of the workers and the Standard Steel company. The telegram, which was signed by John Fitzpatrick, chairman, informed the President that it was impossible to hold the men longer than that time unless some relief was granted.

President Wilson left St. Paul early this morning and rolled away across the broad prairies into North Dakota, where he is being greeted with increased attendance all along the line.

The President expressed himself as greatly pleased with the sentiment he found during his stay in St. Paul for speedy ratification of the peace treaty and League of Nations pact.

He was scheduled to arrive at Bismarck, S. D., at 11 a. m. He is now traveling through the region where the I. W. W. has long been flourishing and his argument that by ratifying the peace treaty with its labor pact would go far toward settling the world's economic problems and thus settle Bolshevism for all time, is meeting with enthusiastic favor.

ABOARD PRESIDENT'S TRAIN, Bismarck, S. D., Sept. 10—The President arrived at Bismarck at 11 o'clock, scheduled time. He was greeted at the railway station by an immense crowd and cheered for a full minute. He followed the lines of his St. Paul addresses here and his plea for capital and labor to get together to end industrial and business unrest was generously applauded. Billings, Montana, is the next stopping point for the Presidential special.

FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE REPORT
LEAGUE COVENANT TO THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10—The League of Nations covenant and Peace Treaty was reported to the Senate by Foreign Relations committee at 1 o'clock today.

The report was filed by Senator Lodge. It is accompanied by a spirited defense of the work of the committee, with a sharp criticism of the President and blistering condemnation of the League which is styled as a means to embroil this country in European wars.

The report recites that the committee speeded up its consideration of the covenant on account of the demands of Democratic leaders and newspapers and they ask now a prompt action toward final disposition of the pact by the Democratic leaders in the Senate.

In further justification of the committee's deliberations the Lodge report recites that a number of the other nations parties to the pact have not ratified it yet. Failure of the committee to receive all the information they were entitled to was also commented upon, while arguments similar to Senate debate was also embodied touching upon the six votes of Great Britain to America's one; the Shantung treaty; right of withdrawal and Article X. Special stress was laid upon the dangers confronting us when we are once caught in the meshes of the League and required to mix up in the quarrels of the twenty-six other nations signatory to the pact.

In concluding the Lodge report says that as it took six months to make the treaty the taking of six weeks to consider it in committee does not seem to be excessive.

Senator Hitchcock Democratic leader of the Administration forces will also present a minority report.

SECOND ACQUITTAL IN AUSTRAW CASE

GREENSBURG, Sept. 10—John Ray, aged 17, the mine laborer, charged in the "Crawford confession" with being the principal in the murder of Miss Emma Austraw, 19-year-old Derry township school teacher, on the Ardary farm near Loyahanna, on April 28, was acquitted of the crime by direction of Judge McConnell in criminal court here this morning. The District Attorney was satisfied and the result was a foregone conclusion following the acquittal last week of Crawford, the other man charged with the crime, on the ground of insanity.

WRESTLING BOUT
FRIDAY EVENING

Leslie Roberts, the Boardman wrestler, appears to have retired from the mat game. At least the challenges of Hayatt, the California wonder and Charley Plattos, of Bath, N. Y., have failed to get a word from Roberts. Plattos the latest challenger is especially anxious to come to grips with the Boardman man.

Hayatt, the alifornian and Plattos, will meet at the Expo building at the Clearfield Park, Friday evening and the winner of this match will then endeavor to force the Boardman into a match. Manager "Tunk" Edwards is looking after Hayatt's interests and will stage Friday nights bout.

Here is a little story concerning Plattos taken from the Bath, N. Y. Times:

The largest crowd ever assembled for a wrestling match in the Armory witnessed a whirlwind bout last night when A. L. Marshall of Brunswick and Charley Plattos of this city struggled on the mat for 52 minutes without either man securing a fall. Owing to an accident which rendered Marshall unconscious at the end of the 52 minutes scrimmage the match was called off by referee Bulet.

The battle started off with regular professional speed, Marshall showing himself to be the quicker of the two. Plattos the stronger. By brute strength the big Greek endeavored to down the boy from Brunswick. Catch-as-catch-can with the strangle hold barred was the ruling for the match and at the start off every hold known to the game was used by the contestants. Both men showed that they were quite familiar with the fine points of wrestling and throughout the match was either man's. The fans could not tell from one minute to the next what would happen. At times Marshall's speed gave him promise of winning the bout. He was as quick as a cat. On the other hand the strength of Plattos coupled with his science offset Marshall's speed work.

The pair continued this close work without a breather for nearly 50 minutes. Then came the exciting moment. Both men were locked together, and it could be seen that Marshall was going to spring a toe hold. But no sooner had he taken hold of Plattos' foot than the Bath man gave a kick and quite unintentionally kicked Marshall. The blow was a hard one and literally knocked the Brunswick wrestler out. It was then that Mr. Bulet called off the bout. But Marshall showed gameness by challenging Plattos to a best-two-falls-out-of-three-bout to the finish. Plattos was very much broken up by the unfortunate event of the evening and seemed genuinely sorry that he had inflicted such punishment on his opponent. However anyone present knew that the affair was purely accidental, so no explanations on the part of Plattos were necessary. He accepted Marshall's challenge, and the bout was set for one week from Friday night in the Armory.

NEW YORK'S TRIBUTE TO GEN. PERSHING
AND FIRST DIVISION MARVELOUS ONECARDINAL MERCIER
ARRIVED YESTERDAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 10—Cardinal Mercier of Belgium, accompanied by Bishop De Wachter, chief Belgian army chaplain, and the Belgian Minister to the United States, Baron Marchienne, arrived last evening from Brest on the Agamemnon. The Cardinal comes to the United States to personally thank Americans for their country's part in saving Belgium and civilization from the Germans.

Cardinal Mercier is a Walloon, and was Archbishop of Malines until 1907, when he became Cardinal. He was born in Belgium in 1851, and has been active in psychological and philosophical research at the University of Louvain.

Cardinal Mercier was more hated by the Germans than any other man in Belgium, not excepting King Albert. When the German hordes invaded Belgium, driving King Albert's armies from their little land, Cardinal Mercier remained inside the German lines to look after his people.

He played the role among the Belgians behind the lines that King Albert played outside. He went everywhere in Belgium, and openly defied the German authorities. Whenever possible he stopped Hun abuses and atrocities, and fought them on every turn. The Germans threatened to imprison him, and sought to get him out of the way, but feared to molest him by reason of his high position and indomitable courage.

In the black days when many Belgians were being kept alive almost solely with American food sent thru the Hoover commission, Cardinal Mercier vowed that he would personally go to the United States to thank Americans for their help to Belgium, if his life was spared throughout the war. When the little Belgian army re-entered their country following the armistice, Cardinal Mercier began plans to come to America. Until now he has been occupied with reconstruction work among his people.

Due to the fact that President Wilson is on his tour, Cardinal Mercier plans to make his first visit with Cardinal Gibbons in Baltimore after a short rest in New York.

REFUSED TO BELIEVE IT

A third ward young man threw quite a scare into several companions last evening. A bunch of boys went up to the swimming hole about dark for a plunge into the limpid waters of the Susquehanna. One of the number, a long, lean, lanky fellow, got tired before the rest had their swim out and quietly donning his clothes beat it for home thinking the other boys had seen him leave.

When the boys came out they missed their former companion and at once jumped to the conclusion the poor fellow had gone down with the late lamented "McGinty". The alarm was given and some excitement created. Finally one of the boys called up the young man's home on the phone to break the sad news. When he got the house he said "Sorry to inform you but Clair was drowned this evening." The person at the other end of the phone chuckled a little and then rather surprised his informant by telling him he didn't believe a word of it, and followed this up by saying he was the supposed victim of the drowning and was satisfied the report was untrue. So was the other fellow.

WILSON TOLD CORN CROP IS
LARGEST YET

OMAHA, Sept. 9—The real cure for Bolshevism, President Wilson was told by a committee of farmers who called on him just before he left Des Moines Sunday night, is Iowa's bumper corn crop, the largest in the history of the state. The farmers said: "There will be enough corn raised in Iowa this year to load wagons with 50 bushels each and stretch a belt westward across the United States, over the Pacific, across Siberia and all Europe and back to San Francisco. And they would still be loading corn in Des Moines then."

AMERICA'S GREATEST SOLDIER HIGHLY
COMPLIMENTS BELGIAN'S GREATEST
CHURCHMAN DURING PARADE

By FRANK J. TAYLOR

NEW YORK, September 10—The First Division—the first to go against the Hun and the last to get back to the good old U. S. A., with General John J. Pershing at its head, paraded right into the hearts of the people of the world's greatest city here today.

Little old New York gave its own 69th and 77th Division remarkable homecoming testimonials but the greeting to the First Division greatly outstripped all previous efforts along this line.

When General Pershing, at the head of the column, reached the Cathedral he saw Cardinal Mercier, the Belgian Primate, who arrived in this country last evening, watching the parade. Halting, the General dismounted from his horse, made his way thru the crowd and shook hands with and warmly greeted the famous Belgian churchman. He then returned to the head of the column and again took up the march.

When the column reached the Arch of Triumph General Pershing again dismounted and facing his troops said: "Boys, I never saw anything like this before and I never expect to see anything like it again."

Stepping aside the parade started and after awhile the General was taken in a car to his hotel and later resumed his review of the passing column.

BOSTON UNDER MILITARY RULE

BOSTON, Sept. 10—Rioting broke out at 1:30 this afternoon in one of the principal squares and a mass of angry fighting men proceeded down the avenue toward the downtown section. The situation soon got beyond control of the citizen volunteers replacing the striking policemen and the mobilization call for the 11th Regiment State Guards was sounded on the fire whistles at 11:45.

The rioting continued and three other regiments consisting of cavalry, machine gun companies and infantry were ordered into Boston at once.

FORMER SEWICKLEY GIRL
TO WED PHILADELPHIA MAN

The wedding of Miss Mary Elizabeth Sommerville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bond Valentine Sommerville formerly of Sewickley and Joseph Clark Buchanan of Chambersburg and Philadelphia, will take place tonight in the old Sommerville home, "Highcliffe," Winburne, Pa. The bride party will include Mrs. L. J. Davis, of Carnegie, and Miss Eliza Sommerville, a sister of the bride, as matron and maid of honor; Miss Martha Sommerville, of Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Anna and Miss Janet Buchanan, of Chambersburg, sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Isabel Downing, of Sewickley and Miss Gertrude and Miss Drusilla Daily of Thornburg as the bridesmaids. Andrew Post of New York, will serve as best man and the ushers will be Dr. Davis, D. Sommerville, Paul Orth of Steelton, Albert Post, of Albany, N. Y.; A. J. Johnson, of New York and Edward Brandow of Chambersburg. Miss Sommerville is a niece of Mrs. William Arrott and Mrs. B. Ramsey Koert of Sewickley. —Pittsburgh Gazette-Times

YOU'LL BE THERE, WON'T YOU?

One of the best church amusement occasions that has been held for some time will be the Terabac social which will be pulled off at the Erpo hall of the Clearfield park on Thursday night.

The mammoth hall will be dotted here and there with tables seating four, and during the evening music of the sort that lives one up will be discoursed by a symphony orchestra and a chorus of twenty voices.

The orchestra will be under the direction of Prof. Oscar W. Schaeffer and will be composed of the West Side Sunday school orchestra with some additions of this city's best musicians.

The chorus of twenty voices will sing popular and classical music during the evening. There will be vocal and instrumental selections. The arrangement of the hall precludes any stiffness that usually is evidenced at occasions such as this and it is the earnest wish of the promoters of the affair that everybody come and have a good time.

COURT TO COUNT VOTES

Because of a law passed by the last legislature, Judge Singleton Bell and a couple of clerks he will appoint will make the official count of the ballots cast at the primary election on September 16. This is because all of the present commissioners are candidates for reelection.

The commissioners usually make this official count, but the new law requires that when two or more of these officials are candidates for reelection, the work shall be done under the direction of the county court.

Heretofore it has been customary when a commissioner was seeking reelection, the work shall be done unpartially to assist in the counting of the ballots. No plans have yet been announced by the court for the work of making the official count.

PALMER'S OPINION UPON LUSITANIA'S SINKING RECALLED

In the course of sharp criticism of A. Mitchell Palmer, now Attorney General, for his conduct of the office of the Alien Property Custodian, Senator Frelinghuysen recalled what he described as the "weasel words" of Mr. Palmer at the time of the sinking of the Lusitania.

Senator Frelinghuysen put into the record this expression of opinion on the Lusitania sinking given a newspaper by Mr. Palmer:

"Stroudsburg, Pa., May 8

"The loss of American lives on the Lusitania is a matter of grave concern to our people, but it does not, under the circumstances, call for immediate drastic action on the part of the United States. It certainly ought not to embroil us in this foreign war.

"The Lusitania was flying the British flag and carrying munitions of war for the support of a belligerent. Neutral passengers who, in the face of warnings, undertook this perilous voyage certainly assumed some risk themselves, for which the entire Nation ought not to be asked to suffer. Of course, the destruction of a passenger boat is horrible. War is always horrible.

"This method of fighting is not humane—it is hardly civilized, but there is no such thing as humanity in civilized warfare. Our people may have the greatest confidence that the President will deal with this admittedly serious situation with a wise forbearance, which will make for peace without sacrifice of any of our real rights.

OUTLINE OF A CORRECT PROFIT-SHARING PLAN

A good many years of actual experience have made me very optimistic regarding profit-sharing plans worked out along the following lines:

First: Every business has, first of all, to earn operating expenses, depreciation and fair returns for honest capitalization. Second: I believe that every business should consider that the compensation paid employees is for the purpose of earning a sum of money sufficient to pay the above-mentioned items.

Third: I believe that any profits over and above such sum should, on some percentage basis, be divided between the capital used in the business and the employees engaged in the business.

Fourth: I believe that in neither case should these profits be immediately withdrawn from the business; that they should be left in the business for a reasonable length of time, to protect and increase its financial strength and safety; that, in the case of capital, its share of these profits should be distributed to them in some form of security representing an interest in the business, and that each employee should be required to hold such security for a reasonable length of time, say three to five years.

Fifth: I believe that the employees' share of these profits should be allotted to them as nearly as possible on the basis of the compensation they receive. Up to date, this has proven to be the best method.—George W. Perkins in "Profit Sharing or The Workers Fair Share."

CHICAGO STOCK COMPANY HERE ALL NEXT WEEK

The Chicago Stock company, under the personal management of Charles H. RossKam, are to make their annual engagement in or city, beginning next Monday evening at the Driggs Theatre.

Charles A. RossKam, the advance representative of the company arrived here yesterday and in an interview with the Progress reporter he informed The Progress man that Manager RossKam has rounded up the greatest repertoire for this season of any ever before presented by a traveling company in America. These plays include such successes as "The Brat" which ran at the Morosco theatre in New York for over a year and which was seen in this city last season at two dollar prices; "Upside and Down" the greatest Hatton comedy; "Fair and Warmer" the coast-to-coast laughing success; "When the Cat's Away," Avery Hopwoods greatest laugh tonic; Louise Alcott's world known "Little Women" and a dramatization of Jacques Futrell's great novel, "My Lady's Garter."

Today's Political Review

COLLECTION—In our mention of one Evans candidate for Register and Recorder, we erred in styling him the only single man in the campaign. There has been happily married for several years.—Ed.

Why there should always be the most contention about the most undesirable offices is one of the mysteries of politics. Again it is one of the mysteries of county government that the most important office of county commissioners who were them all pays the least salary. We not damned to the bitter end and refer to the office of county commissioner. Why any man should draw fire than to get elected to the office of county commissioner. If it rains too much, we blame the commissioners. If taxes increase, we blame the commissioners. If roads are not built we blame the commissioners. If disease spreads, we blame the commissioners. In this way the commissioners are mighty handy for if we did not have them, who on earth would the muckers blame. It has been so since the first board took their oath of office just after the white man drove the redskins from the banks of the Chinleclamoose, which is Moose Creek, we might explain for the benefit of those who came to our Clear Field in recent moons.

Notwithstanding the warning pointed out by our county history there are nine men, good and true, who are willing to run the gauntlet of the public displeasure for the next four years. Here they are as they will appear on the ballot:

Jesse E. Dale, DuBois
M. F. Graham, Clearfield
Samuel Golby, Houtzdale
Harry L. Jones, Clearfield
Frank Kerr, Madera
Joseph Pickering, Clearfield
H. H. Spencer, Clearfield
Chas. S. Strong, Ansonville
T. R. Weiner, DuBois

All are married and for the most part fairly good looking. All are substantial, respected citizens, well schooled in the experience of life and the conduct of business pursuits. Graham, Golby, Kerr, Pickering and Strong are making their debut in office seeking, none of them ever having graced the county ticket before. Weiner is making his third attempt to pull away from peddling meats to the butchers and occupy a seat in the court house. Dale and Spencer are candidates for re-election while Jones is making his second attempt to land the place which he lost four years ago by eighty votes. Jones was a candidate twelve years ago for the general assembly. He at that time resided in Cooper township.

The registration in DuBois is nearly completed and every day sees the Republican party growing stronger in that city. So many have registered that the political dolester over that way declares that the Republican vote in DuBois will total one seventh of all the vote in the county.

Unless we are very much mistaken there are going to be some real interesting developments in at least two of the contests before this week is over. The clouds are gathering and the atmosphere is just right for a storm to break. While the issues to be brought up are really trifling they will do much toward injecting a little interest into the fight.

The Water in which we do Your Washing

No detail in the washing of clothes is so important as the water used.

Laundresses once imagined they were exceptionally sanitary when they changed the water in tubs and boilers four or five times during a washday. And considering their limited facilities, they really did do very well.

But if you were to visit our laundry, you would find us doing even better. We use new water not once, but from nine to twelve times while your clothes are being cleansed.

Every few minutes while the washing is in progress, we draw off the muddied water and add more that is fresh and pure—water specially filtered and specially softened.

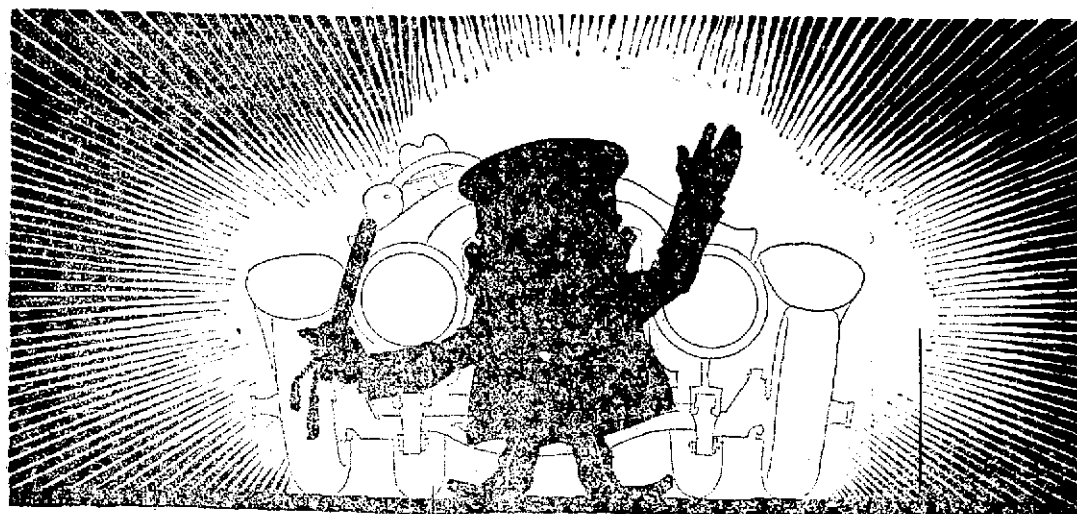

Isn't this an immense improvement over the home laundering methods of by-gone days? And it is a fine guarantee, too, of true clothes health.

Why seek high and low for a laundress? Why struggle and strain over the family washing when we can give you this ideal laundry service? Why not telephone us and turn your washday worries over to our driver when he calls.

When I ran for the office of County Commissioner four years ago, I came within 80 votes of getting the nomination. This year I am making strenuous efforts to see those eighty fellows who did not cast their vote for me.

My platform is a business administration along business lines. My years of experience in the County Treasurer's office has given me an insight as to how the county's business should be run. The taxpayers' interests will be my interests.

Consistent Republican principles have guided my political life and on this business-like platform I ask you for your vote.

Why We Welcome Small Accounts

Many people believe that a bank does not want small accounts.

In such accounts, however, the profits are mutual.

The bank that encourages small accounts often sees them grow into large ones.

The possession of a bank account inspires the depositor to saving habits and teaches him to be business-like.

BROWN

No Need To Pay
Prices Here For Fall

No need because we anticipated the advance in shoes and placed contracts a year ago, for large quantities. Through our four large exclusive shoe stores we have a marketing capacity. Our needs are large. We buy in huge quantities and we go to the manufacturers, to buy. There is no middleman's profit on our shoes.

Because of the fact that our prices are based on contracts made over a year ago.

Brown's Prices For Fall Show Little Or No Advance Over Last Year

We carried out our convictions in a large way by buying heavily a year ago. Our foresight has enabled us to help ourselves and help you to KEEP PRICES DOWN.

The result of our efforts as the unexcelled collection of new Fall Shoes which we have assembled for MEN, WOMEN and CHILDREN.

Call and inspect our stock.

A SHORT JOURNEY

Two Clearfield boys aged 15 and 9 years started out Tuesday morning to see the world. They boarded a freight train in the N. Y. C. yards and got as far as DuBois where they were turned over to the police and Officer Middleton brought the adventurers back home on the afternoon train.

THE year with two or three or four different brands of tires reflects on the owner's ability to buy judiciously.

People who try Firestone Gray Sidewall Tires are no longer in the ranks of the tire doubter.

They know that at least make of tires has more mile wear. They know that name Firestone carries assurance and that the tires are firmly good.

in the Sunday edition gains instant favor. It is a complete review of the things in which women are most interested.

The news of society, including Peggy Shippen's brilliant review of social events.

Smart letters covering activities in New York, Washington, Newport, the fashionable resorts and European cities.

Features of interest to women in social and public life.

Mrs. M. A. Wilson conducts a department on food economy and cooking.

Edith M. Burtis writes of the Fashions. It was of a PUBLIC LEDGER article by Miss Burtis that William G. Freeman wrote in the New York Globe: "One of the best articles I ever read on the importance of wearing the proper kind of clothes was written by Edith M. Burtis."

Ruth Plumly Thompson, the widely known author of children's stories, conducts the department for Boys and Girls.

Although this tract of land contains nearly 500 acres the timber occupies probably not more than one-third of the whole acreage. The New York Central railroad is on the opposite side of the river and the other line of this railroad runs through the tract via the Hoyt and Friendship tunnels.

The timber upon the Homestead reservation will be offered separately. It will also be offered with the buildings and the land upon which this timber stands.

The timber on the J. P. Hoyt Est. ten acre lot near the McClure cemetery will also be sold at the same time. The following is the estimate by Mr. Burge, of Clearfield.

Kind of timber	No. trees	ft. Board measure

One Reason Why I Ask Your Vote

This Is One of Several Which You Will Get In Due Time

Eight years ago when I ran for the office of Prothonotary of the county I was defeated at the primary. Recognizing the right of the present incumbent to the second term, I did not attempt to run at the last election.

This year I feel that, in view of the good sportsmanship displayed, I am entitled to your most earnest consideration when you cast your vote at the primary. I have served the Republican party well. I have been a lifelong adherent to the principles promulgated by exponents of Republican doctrine.

When you mark your ballot on Tuesday, September 16th mark it like this:

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

The Year's Most Pleasing New Sedan

THE season offers no other sedan so pleasing in the beauty of its lines and its furnishings, as the new series Chandler Sedan. And there is none that may be compared with it at anything like its price.

The new Chandler Sedan is the highest expression of years of development in the creation of closed bodies. It is beautiful to look at, and most comfortable to ride in. It has style and refinement that must appeal to those who care for the finer things.

This car seats seven persons most comfortably or five when auxiliary chairs are not in use. The front seat is solid, not divided as in previous models, and the window posts are a permanent part of the body, not removable. The windows, however, may be lowered away or adjusted to suit the weather and the wish. The entire interior is upholstered in finest quality silk-plush of pleasing pattern for cushions and plain tone for head lining. Interior fittings are in dull silver finish.

Despite the largest production in the history of the Chandler company, the demand for the new series sedan will quickly consume the production for weeks to come. Your early order will be a safeguard against disappointment.

likes. Such peace-time styles in such varieties have never before graced this store—Women will be fascinated by the charm of the models.

But do not think that the prices are high—rather to the contrary. Prices are really very moderate. No reason this season why every woman cannot be well dressed, particularly if her apparel is bought here. And if this is your desire be sure to come to this event, which will really be a SOCIAL EVENT for the wom-

PRESIDENT IN I. W. W. TERRITORY SAYS
LABOR PACT IN TREATY WILL END UNRESTCLAIMS TO BE GREATLY PLEASED OVER
SENTIMENT THRUOUT MINNESOTA IN FAVOR OF RATIFICATION

CAPITAL AND LABOR MUST AGREE

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10—Steel workers officials told President Wilson in a dispatch sent him today that they would wait but 48 hours more for him to arrange a conference between representatives of the workers and the Standard Steel company. The telegram, which was signed by John Fitzpatrick, chairman, informed the President that it was impossible to hold the men longer than that time unless some relief was granted.

President Wilson left St. Paul early this morning and rolled away across the broad prairies into North Dakota, where he is being greeted with increased attendance all along the line.

The President expressed himself as greatly pleased with the sentiment he found during his stay in St. Paul for speedy ratification of the peace treaty and League of Nations pact.

He was scheduled to arrive at Bismarck, S. D., at 11 a. m. He is now traveling through the region where the I. W. W. has long been flourishing and his argument that by ratifying the peace treaty with its labor pact would go far toward settling the world's economic problems and thus settle Bolshevism for all time, is meeting with enthusiastic favor.

By HUGH BAILLEE

United Press Staff Correspondent

ABOARD PRESIDENT'S TRAIN, Bismarck, S. D., Sept. 10—The President arrived at Bismarck at 11 o'clock, scheduled time. He was greeted at the railway station by an immense crowd and cheered for a full minute. He followed the lines of his St. Paul addresses here and his plea for capital and labor to get together to end industrial and business unrest was generously applauded. Billings, Montana, is the next stopping point for the Presidential special.

FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE REPORT
LEAGUE COVENANT TO THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10—The League of Nations covenant and Peace Treaty was reported to the Senate by Foreign Relations committee at 1 o'clock today.

The report was filed by Senator Lodge. It is accompanied by a spirited defense of the work of the committee, with a sharp criticism of the President and blistering condemnation of the League which is styled as a means to embroil this country in European wars.

The report recites that the committee speeded up its consideration of the covenant on account of the demands of Democratic leaders and newspapers and they ask now a prompt action toward final disposition of the pact by the Democratic leaders in the Senate.

In further justification of the committee's deliberations the Lodge report recites that a number of the other nations parties to the pact have not ratified it yet. Failure of the committee to receive all the information they were entitled to was also commented upon, while arguments similar to Senate debate was also embodied touching upon the six votes of Great Britain to America's one; the Shantung treaty; right of withdrawal and Article X. Special stress was laid upon the dangers confronting us when we are once caught in the meshes of the League and required to mix up in the quarrels of the twenty-six other nations signatory to the pact.

In concluding the Lodge report says that as it took six months to make the treaty the taking of six weeks to consider it in committee does not seem to be excessive.

Senator Hitchcock Democratic leader of the Administration forces will also present a minority report.

SECOND ACQUITTAL IN AUSTRAW CASE

GREENSBURG, Sept. 10—John Ray, aged 17, the mine laborer, charged in the "Crawford confession" with being the principal in the murder of Miss Emma Austraw, 19-year-old Derry township school teacher, on the Ardary farm near Loyahanna, on April 28, was acquitted of the crime by direction of Judge McConnell in criminal court here this morning. The District Attorney was satisfied and the result was a foregone conclusion following the acquittal last week of Crawford, the other man charged with the crime, on the ground of insanity.

WRESTLING BOUT
FRIDAY EVENING

Leslie Roberts, the Boardman wrestler, appears to have retired from the mat game. At least the challenges of Hayatt, the California wonder and Charley Platts, of Bath, N. Y., have failed to get a word from Roberts. Platts the latest challenger is especially anxious to come to grips with the Boardman man.

Hayatt, the alifornian and Platts, will meet at the Expo building at the Clearfield Park, Friday evening and the winner of this match will then endeavor to force the Boardman into a match. Manager "Tunk" Edwards is looking after Hayatt's interests and will stage Friday nights bout.

Here is a little story concerning Platts taken from the Bath, N. Y. Times:

The largest crowd ever assembled for a wrestling match in the Armory witnessed a whirlwind bout last night when A. L. Marshall of Brunswick and Charley Platts of this city struggled on the mat for 52 minutes without either man securing a fall. Owing to an accident which rendered Marshall unconscious at the end of the 52 minutes scrimmage the match was called off by referee Bulet.

The battle started off with regular professional speed, Marshall showing himself to be the quicker of the two. Platts the stronger. By brute strength the big Greek endeavored to down the boy from Brunswick. Catch-as-catch-can with the strangle hold barred was the ruling for the match and at the start off every hold known to the game was used by the contestants. Both men showed that they were quite familiar with the fine points of wrestling and throughout the match was either man's. The fans could not tell from one minute to the next what would happen. At times Marshall's speed gave him promise of winning the bout. He was as quick as a cat. On the other hand the strength of Platts coupled with his science offset Marshall's speed work.

The pair continued this close work without a breather for nearly 50 minutes. Then came the exciting moment. Both men were locked together, and it could be seen that Marshall was going to spring a toe hold. But no sooner had he taken hold of Platts' foot than the Bath man gave a kick and quite unintentionally kicked Marshall. The blow was a hard one and literally knocked the Brunswick wrestler out. It was then that Mr. Bulet called off the bout. But Marshall showed gameness by challenging Platts to a best-two-falls-out-of-three-bout to the finish. Platts was very much broken up by the unfortunate event of the evening and seemed genuinely sorry that he had inflicted such punishment on his opponent. However anyone present knew that the affair was purely accidental, so no explanations on the part of Platts were necessary. He accepted Marshall's challenge, and the bout was set for one week from Friday night in the Armory.

JOHN MITCHELL DIES

NEW YORK'S TRIBUTE TO GEN. PERSHING
AND FIRST DIVISION MARVELOUS ONECARDINAL MERCIER
ARRIVED YESTERDAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 10—Cardinal Mercier of Belgium, accompanied by Bishop De Wachter, chief Belgian army chaplain, and the Belgian Minister to the United States, Baron Marchienne, arrived last evening from Brest on the Agamemnon. The Cardinal comes to the United States to personally thank Americans for their country's part in saving Belgium and civilization from the Germans.

Cardinal Mercier is a Walloon, and was Archbishop of Malines until 1907, when he became Cardinal. He was born in Belgium in 1851, and has been active in psychological and philosophical research at the University of Louvain.

Cardinal Mercier was more hated by the Germans than any other man in Belgium, not excepting King Albert. When the German hordes invaded Belgium, driving King Albert's armies from their land, Cardinal Mercier remained inside the German lines to look after his people. He played the role among the Belgians behind the lines that King Albert played outside. He went everywhere in Belgium, and openly defied the German authorities. Whenever possible he stopped Hun abuses and atrocities, and fought them on every turn. The Germans threatened to imprison him, and sought to get him out of the way, but feared to molest him by reason of his high position and indomitable courage.

In the black days when many Belgians were being kept alive almost solely with American food sent thru the Hoover commission, Cardinal Mercier vowed that he would personally go to the United States to thank Americans for their help to Belgium, if his life was spared throughout the war. When the little Belgian army re-entered their country following the armistice, Cardinal Mercier began plans to come to America. Until now he has been occupied with reconstruction work among his people. Due to the fact that President Wilson is on his tour, Cardinal Mercier plans to make his first visit with Cardinal Gibbons in Baltimore after a short rest in New York.

Baron Marchienne and his wife are making plans for the visit of the King and Queen of Belgium to the United States.

REFUSED TO BELIEVE IT

A third ward young man threw quite a scare into several companions last evening. A bunch of boys went up to the swimming hole about dark for a plunge into the limpid waters of the Susquehanna. One of the number, a long, lean, lanky fellow, got tired before the rest had their swim out and quietly donning his clothes beat it for home thinking the other boys had seen him leave.

When the boys came out they missed their former companion and at once jumped to the conclusion the poor fellow had gone down with the late lamented "McGinty". The alarm was given and some excitement created. Finally one of the boys called up the young man's home on the phone to break the sad news. When he got the house he said "Sorry to inform you but Clair was drowned this evening." The person at the other end of the phone chuckled a little and then rather surprised his informant by telling him he didn't believe a word of it, and followed this up by saying he was the supposed victim of the drowning and was satisfied the report was untrue. So was the other fellow.

WILSON TOLD CORN CROP IS
LARGEST YET

OMAHA, Sept. 9—The real cure for Bolshevism, President Wilson was told by a committee of farmers who called on him just before he left Des Moines Sunday night, is Iowa's bumper corn crop, the largest in the history of the state. The farmers said: "There will be enough corn raised in Iowa this year to load wagons with 50 bushels each and stretch a belt westward across the United States, over the Pacific, across Siberia and all Europe and back to San Francisco. And they would still be loading corn in Des Moines then."

AMERICA'S GREATEST SOLDIER HIGHLY
CHURCHMAN DURING PARADE

By FRANK J. TAYLOR

NEW YORK, September 10—The First Division—the first to go against the Hun and the last to get back to the good old U. S. A., with General John J. Pershing at its head, paraded right into the hearts of the people of the world's greatest city here today.

Little old New York gave its own 69th and 77th Division remarkable homecoming testimonials but the greeting to the First Division greatly outstripped all previous efforts along this line.

When General Pershing, at the head of the column, reached the Cathedral he saw Cardinal Mercier, the Belgian Primate, who arrived in this country last evening, watching the parade. Halting, the General dismounted from his horse, made his way thru the crowd and shook hands with and warmly greeted the famous Belgian churchman. He then returned to the head of the column and again took up the march.

When the column reached the Arch of Triumph General Pershing again dismounted and facing his troops said: "Boys, I never saw anything like this before and I never expect to see anything like it again."

Stepping aside the parade started and after awhile the General was taken in a car to his hotel and later resumed his review of the passing column.

BOSTON UNDER MILITARY RULE

BOSTON, Sept. 10—Rioting broke out at 1:30 this afternoon in one of the principal squares and a mass of angry fighting men proceeded down the avenue toward the downtown section. The situation soon got beyond control of the citizen volunteers replacing the striking policemen and the mobilization call for the 11th Regiment State Guards was sounded on the fire whistles at 11:45.

The rioting continued and three other regiments consisting of cavalry, machine gun companies and infantry were ordered into Boston at once.

FORMER SEWICKLEY GIRL
TO WED PHILADELPHIA MAN

The wedding of Miss Mary Elizabeth Sommerville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bond Valentine Sommerville formerly of Sewickley and Joseph Clark Buchanan of Chambersburg and Philadelphia, will take place tonight in the old Sommerville home, "Highcliffe," Winburne, Pa. The bride party will include Mrs. L. J. Davis, of Carnegie, and Miss Eliza Sommerville, a sister of the bride, as matron and maid of honor; Miss Martha Sommerville, of Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Anna and Miss Janet Buchanan, of Chambersburg, sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Isabel Downing, of Sewickley and Miss Gertrude and Miss Drusilla Daily of Thornburg as the bridesmaids. Andrew Post of New York, will serve as best man and the ushers will be Dr. Davis, D. Sommerville, Paul Orth of Steelton, Albert Post, of Albany, N. Y.; A. J. Johnson, of New York and Edward Brandow of Chambersburg. Miss Sommerville is a niece of Mrs. William Arrott and Mrs. B. Ramsey Koert of Sewickley. —Pittsburgh Gazette-Times

YOU'LL BE THERE. WONT YOU?

One of the best church amusement occasions that has been held for some time will be the Terabac social which will be pulled off at the Erpo hall of the Clearfield park on Thursday night.

The mammoth hall will be dotted here and there with tables seating four, and during the evening music of the sort that lives one up will be discoursed by a symphony orchestra and a chorus of twenty voices.

The orchestra will be under the direction of Prof. Oscar W. Schaeffer and will be composed of the West Side Sunday school orchestra with some additions of this city's best musicians.

The chorus of twenty voices will sing popular and classical music during the evening. There will be vocal and instrumental selections. The arrangement of the Hall precludes any stiffness that usually is evidenced at occasions such as this and it is the earnest wish of the promoters of the affair that everybody come and have a good time.

COURT TO COUNT VOTES

Because of a law passed by the last legislature, Judge Singleton Bell and a couple of clerks he will appoint will make the official count of the ballots cast at the primary election on September 16. This is because all of the present commissioners are candidates for reelection.

The commissioners usually make this official count, but the new law requires that when two or more of these officials are candidates for reelection, the work shall be done under the direction of the county court.

Heretofore it has been customary when a commissioner was seeking reelection, the work shall be done unpartially to assist in the counting of the ballots. No plans have yet been announced by the court for the work of making the official count.

PALMER'S OPINION UPON LUSITANIA'S SINKING RECALLED

In the course of sharp criticism of A. Mitchell Palmer, now Attorney General, for his conduct of the office of the Alien Property Custodian, Senator Frelinghuysen recalled what he described as the "weasel words" of Mr. Palmer at the time of the sinking of the Lusitania.

Senator Frelinghuysen put into the record this expression of opinion on the Lusitania sinking given a newspaper by Mr. Palmer:

"Stroudsburg, Pa., May 8

"The loss of American lives on the Lusitania is a matter of grave concern to our people, but it does not, under the circumstances, call for immediate drastic action on the part of the United States. It certainly ought not to embroil us in this foreign war.

"The Lusitania was flying the British flag and carrying munitions of war for the support of a belligerent. Neutral passengers who, in the face of warnings, undertook this perilous voyage certainly assumed some risk themselves, for which the entire Nation ought not to be asked to suffer. Of course, the destruction of a passenger boat is horrible. War is always horrible.

"This method of fighting is not humane—it is hardly civilized, but there is no such thing as humanity in civilized warfare. Our people may have the greatest confidence that the President will deal with this admittedly serious situation with a wise forbearance, which will make for peace without sacrifice of any of our real rights.

OUTLINE OF A CORRECT PROFIT-SHARING PLAN

A good many years of actual experience have made me very optimistic regarding profit-sharing plans worked out along the following lines:

First: Every business has, first of all, to earn operating expenses, depreciation and fair returns for honest capitalization.

Second: I believe that every business should consider that the compensation paid employees is for the purpose of earning a sum of money sufficient to pay the above-mentioned items.

Third: I believe that any profits over and above such sum should, on some percentage basis, be divided between the capital used in the business and the employees engaged in the business.

Fourth: I believe that in neither case should these profits be immediately withdrawn from the business; that they should be left in the business for a reasonable length of time, to protect and increase its financial strength and safety; that, in the case of capital, its share of these profits should be distributed to them in some form of security representing an interest in the business, and that each employee should be required to hold such security for a reasonable length of time, say three to five years.

Fifth: I believe that the employees' share of these profits should be allotted to them as nearly as possible on the basis of the compensation they receive. Up to date, this has proven to be the best method.—George W. Perkins in "Profit Sharing or The Workers Fair Share."

CHICAGO STOCK COMPANY HERE ALL NEXT WEEK

The Chicago Stock company, under the personal management of Charles H. RossKam, are to make their annual engagement in or city, beginning next Monday evening at the Driggs Theatre.

Charles A. RossKam, the advance representative of the company arrived here yesterday and in an interview with the Progress reporter he informed The Progress man that Manager RossKam has rounded up the greatest repertoire for this season of any ever before presented by a traveling company in America. These plays include such successes as "The Brat" which ran at the Morosco theatre in New York for over a year and which was seen in this city last season at two dollar prices; "Upside and Down" the greatest Hatton comedy; "Fair and Warmer" the coast-to-coast laughing success; "When the Cat's Away," Avery Hopwoods greatest laugh tonic; Louise Alcott's world known "Little Women" and a dramatization of Jacques Futrell's great novel, "My Lady's Garter."

Why We Welcome Small Accounts

Many people believe that a bank does not want small accounts.

In such accounts, however, the profits are mutual.

The bank that encourages small accounts often sees them grow into large ones.

The possession of a bank account inspires the depositor to saving habits and teaches him to be business-like.

We are glad to serve the small depositor, believing his connection with the bank will benefit both him and ourselves.

Today's Political Review

COLLECTION—In our mention of one Evans candidate for Register and Recorder, we erred in styling him the only single man in the campaign. There has been happily married for several years.—Ed.

Why there should always be the most contention about the most undesirable offices is one of the mysteries of politics. Again it is one of the mysteries of county government that the most important office of county commissioners who were them all pays the least salary. We not damned to the bitter end and refer to the office of county commissioner. Why any man should draw fire than to get elected to the office of county commissioner. If it rains too much, we blame the commissioners. If taxes increase, we blame the commissioners. If roads are not built we blame the commissioners. If disease spreads, we blame the commissioners. In this way the commissioners are mighty handy for if we did not have them, who on earth would the muckers blame. It has been so since the first board took their oath of office just after the white man drove the redskins from the banks of the Chinleclamoose, which is Moose Creek, we might explain for the benefit of those who came to our Clear Field in recent moons.

Notwithstanding the warning pointed out by our county history there are nine men, good and true, who are willing to run the gauntlet of the public displeasure for the next four years. Here they are as they will appear on the ballot:

Jesse E. Dale, DuBois
M. F. Graham, Clearfield
Samuel Golby, Houtzdale
Harry L. Jones, Clearfield
Frank Kerr, Madera
Joseph Pickering, Clearfield
H. H. Spencer, Clearfield
Chas. S. Strong, Ansonville
T. R. Welmer, DuBois

All are married and for the most part fairly good looking. All are substantial, respected citizens, well schooled in the experience of life and the conduct of business pursuits. Graham, Golby, Kerr, Pickering and Strong are making their debut in office seeking, none of them ever having graced the county ticket before. Welmer is making his third attempt to pull away from peddling meats to the butchers and occupy a seat in the court house. Dale and Spencer are candidates for re-election while Jones is making his second attempt to land the place which he lost four years ago by eighty votes. Jones was a candidate twelve years ago for the general assembly. He at that time resided in Cooper township.

The registration in DuBois is nearly completed and every day sees the Republican party growing stronger in that city. So many have registered that the political dolester over that way declares that the Republican vote in DuBois will total one seventh of all the vote in the county.

Unless we are very much mistaken there are going to be some real interesting developments in at least two of the contests before this week is over. The clouds are gathering and the atmosphere is just right for a storm to break. While the issues to be brought up are really trifling they will do much toward injecting a little interest into the fight.

The Water in which we do Your Washing

No detail in the washing of clothes is so important as the water used.

Laundresses once imagined they were exceptionally sanitary when they changed the water in tubs and boilers four or five times during a washday. And considering their limited facilities, they really did do very well.

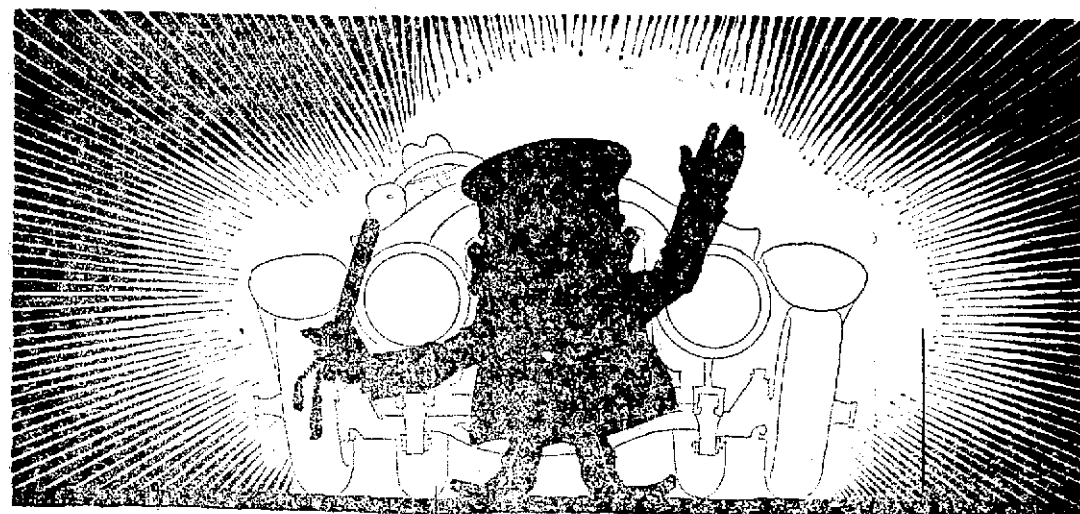

But if you were to visit our laundry, you would find us doing even better. We use new water not once, but from nine to twelve times while your clothes are being cleansed.

Every few minutes while the washing is in progress, we draw off the muddied water and add more that is fresh and pure—water specially filtered and specially softened.

Isn't this an immense improvement over the home laundering methods of by-gone days? And it is a fine guarantee, too, of true clothes health.

Why seek high and low for a laundress? Why struggle and strain over the family washing when we can give you this ideal laundry service? Why not telephone us and turn your washday worries over to our driver when he calls.

Everybody Knows I Needed 80 Votes To Win

When I ran for the office of County Commissioner four years ago, I came within 80 votes of getting the nomination. This year I am making strenuous efforts to see those eighty fellows who did not cast their vote for me.

My platform is a business administration along business lines. My years of experience in the County Treasurer's office has given me an insight as to how the county's business should be run. The taxpayers' interests will be my interests.

Consistent Republican principles have guided my political life and on this business-like platform I ask you for your vote.

A SHORT JOURNEY

Two Clearfield boys aged 15 and 9 years started out Tuesday morning to see the world. They boarded a freight train in the N. Y. C. yards and got as far as DuBois where they were turned over to the police and Officer Middleton brought the adventurers back home on the afternoon train.

THE year with two or three or four different brands of tires reflects on the owner's ability to buy judiciously.

People who try Firestone Gray Sidewall Tires are no longer in the ranks of the tire doubter.

They know that at least make of tires has more mile wear. They know that name Firestone carries assurance and that the tires are firmly good.

in the Sunday edition gains instant favor. It is a complete review of the things in which women are most interested.

The news of society, including Peggy Shippen's brilliant review of social events.

Smart letters covering activities in New York, Washington, Newport, the fashionable resorts and European cities.

Features of interest to women in social and public life.

Mrs. M. A. Wilson conducts a department on food economy and cooking.

Edith M. Burtis writes of the Fashions. It was of a PUBLIC LEDGER article by Miss Burtis that William G. Freeman wrote in the New York Globe: "One of the best articles I ever read on the importance of wearing the proper kind of clothes was written by Edith M. Burtis."

Ruth Plumly Thompson, the widely known author of children's stories, conducts the department for Boys and Girls.

Although this tract of land contains nearly 500 acres the timber occupies probably not more than one-third of the whole acreage. The New York Central railroad is on the opposite side of the river and the other line of this railroad runs through the tract via the Hoyt and Friendship tunnels.

The timber upon the Homestead reservation will be offered separately. It will also be offered with the buildings and the land upon which this timber stands.

The timber on the J. P. Hoyt Est. ten acre lot near the McClure cemetery will also be sold at the same time. The following is the estimate by Mr. Burge, of Clearfield.

Kind of timber	No. trees	ft. Board measure

One Reason Why I Ask Your Vote

This Is One of Several Which You Will Get In Due Time

Eight years ago when I ran for the office of Prothonotary of the county I was defeated at the primary. Recognizing the right of the present incumbent to the second term, I did not attempt to run at the last election.

This year I feel that, in view of the good sportsmanship displayed, I am entitled to your most earnest consideration when you cast your vote at the primary. I have served the Republican party well. I have been a lifelong adherent to the principles promulgated by exponents of Republican doctrine.

When you mark your ballot on Tuesday, September 16th mark it like this:

SEATS WEDNESDAY

CHANDLER SIX
Famous For Its Marvelous MotorThe Year's Most Pleasing New Sedan

THE season offers no other sedan so pleasing in the beauty of its lines and its furnishings, as the new series Chandler Sedan. And there is none that may be compared with it at anything like its price.

The new Chandler Sedan is the highest expression of years of development in the creation of closed bodies. It is beautiful to look at, and most comfortable to ride in. It has style and refinement that must appeal to those who care for the finer things.

This car seats seven persons most comfortably or five when auxiliary chairs are not in use. The front seat is solid, not divided as in previous models, and the window posts are a permanent part of the body, not removable. The windows, however, may be lowered away or adjusted to suit the weather and the wish. The entire interior is upholstered in finest quality silk-plush of pleasing pattern for cushions and plain tone for head lining. Interior fittings are in dull silver finish.

Despite the largest production in the history of the Chandler company, the demand for the new series sedan will quickly consume the production for weeks to come. Your early order will be a safeguard against disappointment.

Fall Opening

Friday, Saturday and Monday
Sept. 12th, 13th and 15th

A Striking Assemblage of Beautiful

Millinery, Suits, Coats,
Dresses, Furs
And Dress Accessories

As usual this is The Fashion Event of the season—and never more so than this Fall. Peace is here and once more Dame Fashion steps forth free and untrammelled to apparel herself as she likes. Such peace-time styles in such varieties have never before graced this store—Women will be fascinated by the charm of the models.

But do not think that the prices are high—rather to the contrary. Prices are really very moderate. No reason this season why every woman cannot be well dressed, particularly if her apparel is bought here. And if this is your desire be sure to come to this event, which will really be a SOCIAL EVENT for the women of this city and district.
